Notes to the Condensed Interim Financial Statements

Six Months Ended June 30, 2013 and 2012

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars, Unaudited)

1. Nature and Continuance of Operations and Going Concern

Valterra Resource Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in Alberta on September 26, 1996, continued to the Yukon on May 8, 1997 and subsequently continued to British Columbia on February 22, 2008.

The Company's principal business activities include the acquisition, exploration, and development of natural resource properties in British Columbia and Ontario, Canada. The Company's registered office is 1710 - 1177 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 2L3.

The business of exploring for minerals involves a high degree of risk and there can be no assurance that any of the Company's current or future exploration programs will result in profitable mining operations. The recoverability of amounts shown for mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain financing to complete their exploration and development, and establish future profitable operations, or realize proceeds from their sale. The carrying value of the Company's mineral properties does not reflect present or future value.

These condensed interim financial statements were prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. As at June 30, 2013, the Company had a working capital deficit of $458,602 (December 31, 2012 - working capital surplus of $264,645). The Company incurred a net loss of $704,792 for the six months ended June 30, 2013 (2012 - $226,395) and had an accumulated deficit of $12,030,656 as at June 30, 2013 (December 31, 2011 - $11,433,867).

As at June 30, 2013, the Company does not have sufficient working capital to meet its administrative overheads and continue with its exploration programs. The Company has relied mainly upon the issuance of share capital to finance its activities. Future capital requirements will depend on many factors including the Company's ability to execute its business plan. The Company will be required to issue share capital to finance future activities through private placements and the exercise of options and warrants and is actively seeking additional equity financing. There can be no assurance that such financing will be available to the Company and, therefore, a material uncertainty exists which casts substantial doubt over the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These condensed interim financial statements do not include the adjustments to assets and liabilities that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

2. Basis of Preparation

These condensed interim financial statements were prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards 34: Interim Financial Reporting on a historical cost basis using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information. The Company's functional and presentation currency is the Canadian dollar.

These condensed interim financial statements do not include all of the information required for complete annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and, therefore, should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012.

D. Summary of Mineral Properties

The Company has been aggressively exploring in British Columbia and Ontario, Canada, building key assets which include the Cu-Au-Ag porphyry/shear-hosted Swift Katie Project, the Au-Ag+-Cu porphyry/shear-hosted "Star Project" (Star and Toughnut claims) and the Bobcaygeon Graphite Property.

The Swift Katie and Star/Toughnut properties occur within a highly metallogenic area of south-eastern British Columbia that historically has hosted several important mining districts, and are underlain by rocks considered very favourable for the discovery of polymetallic mineralization.

The Bobcaygeon Graphite property in southern Ontario covers over 16,000 hectares and is favourably situated on the border of the Precambrian Grenville Province and the Paleozoic Lowlands forming a prospective locale for potential graphitic deposits. The graphite veins are within calcitic marbles sitting west of a syenitic amphibolite unit and the contact is traceable for up to 10-12 kilometres.

Swift Katie

The Swift Katie claims are owned 100% by the Company and comprise more than 83 square kilometres located near Salmo, British Columbia within in an infrastructure-rich region of the province. The Company has completed 15 drill holes (4,866m) on the property and returned several encouraging intercepts indicative of bulk-tonnage Cu-Au-Ag from the main Katie zone. Mineralization occurs in volcano-sedimentary rocks of the Rossland Group which hosts numerous precious-metal and polymetallic past-producers in the region.

In 2011, the Company retained Micon International Limited to conduct an in-house review of the existing drill database for the Katie, West, and 17 zones which comprise over 70 drill holes completed between 1987 and 2008. The drilling outlines a Cu-Au-Ag inventory measuring approximately 600 metres of strike length by 400 metres width, and up to 300 metres depth; being open in several directions. The inventory review work included surveying of historic drill collars, an assessment of the historic QA/QC protocols, and drill spacing with the ultimate goal being to develop a NI 43-101 compliant bulk-tonnage Cu-Au-Ag resource.

Star

The Star property comprises over 20 square kilometres within the prolific Silver King shear zone located in south-eastern British Columbia. The results from past drilling is generally consistent with a zoned porphyry model subjected to shortening and intense shear-fault/hydrothermal activity that generated focused zones of higher-grade mineralization.

Encouraging results received to date warrant continued drilling and the Company anticipates that the Gold Eagle and Alma N targets are advancing toward grid-patterned drilling designed to develop Au-Ag resources of potential economic significance. To date, the Company has completed 25 NQ2/BTW-sized drill holes (5,785m) on the project and has returned several encouraging intercepts for Au-Ag +/- Cu from five known zones. Furthermore, advanced studies on the project database have identified 'embayments' in the magnetic geophysical signature coincident with prospective geological contacts and strong hydrothermal alteration. The precious metal signature is often elevated when these features are core sampled, yet the structures are only nominally tested in the drill record.

The Company has permits for a small-scale trenching program at the Gold Eagle zone, focusing on increasing the surface exposure of the zone and potentially facilitating expanded mapping, sampling and drilling along the mineralized trends. Drilling results continue to advance a porphyry model for the property and airborne data show numerous anomalies warranting follow-up.

Select drill intercept highlights to date include:

Bobcaygeon

The property package encompasses over 160 square kilometres of claims, leases and private patents, and includes claims recently staked to cover important mineral trends and features. The property is located approximately 1.5 hours' drive north of Toronto and is close to transport, power, and numerous services.

Assay highlights to date include:

Sample ID	Sample Type	Cg%
767772	Float Grab	54.9
767773	Float Grab	69.1
767774	0.5m Select Trench Chip	41.9
960540	1.5m Select Trench Chip	36.8
960541	1.4m Select Trench Chip	20.2
960061	0.7m Select Trench Chip	14.6
960542	0.5m Select Trench Chip	8.7
960513	Float Grab	7.76

Additional results have been received from metallurgical testing of a +20kg grab sample which returned an initial head grade of 34% Cg and has produced medium, coarse and jumbo flake graphite fractions assaying >94% C(t) by LOI. The fine-flake fraction was further refined analytically at SGS Labs and an ultra-high-purity, fine-flake graphite concentrate value of 99.97% C was returned from a two-stage leach process followed by LOI analyses on the leach residue; ICP analyses to determine the impurities is pending.

These preliminary flotation and leaching test results demonstrate the potential to produce marketable, high-margin graphite products utilizing industry-standard processing techniques.

A trench opened in December 2012 identified a 20 metre lateral exposure of high grade graphite with trenching bottoming in graphite suggesting a minimum thickness of this lens at 1.5 metres.

Ground EM-MAG-IP geophysical surveys have now been completed on an 11 line-kilometre grid. Preliminary IP chargeability within the Discovery Zone area has outlined an open-ended, near surface, anomaly covering 800 metres x 400 metres, plus additional nearby features and other zones of potential interest.

In March 2013, a diamond drill rig was mobilized onsite and commenced coring several near-surface targets. The primary focus was to test proximal zones to the Discovery Zone trench which has returned excellent metallurgical, analytical and geophysical results.

The drilling consisted of five BQTW-sized holes totaling 145.75 metres and the initial sampling was collected from portions of two holes whose near surface graphitic drill highlights include:

Hole ID	From(m)	To(m)	Interval(m)	Cg(%)
BOB13-001	2.13	4.81	2.68	2.40
inc.	2.13	2.74	0.61	7.35
BOB13-004	14.30	17.68	3.38	6.36
inc.	15.24	17.68	2.44	8.22
inc.	17.15	17.68	0.53	31.90

Preliminary interpretation of the drill results suggests that 1) the target horizon may be near flat-lying or gently undulating; or, 2) that more than one target horizon exists in the Discovery Zone trench area.

The Company is planning for a multi-faceted exploration program in 2013 which includes further drill testing. Additionally, a more extensive geophysical survey is warranted to cover the open-ended and parallel trends detected in the recent program, and the Company expects to conduct a regional exploration program to further assess the large property package.

Claim fees were not renewed upon expiry, and all costs have been written off.

Acquisition Costs

The Company's accounting policy related to expenditures incurred for the acquisition of mineral properties is to capitalize on a property-by-property basis, net of recoveries. During the six months ended June 30, 2013, the Company incurred acquisition costs on its mineral properties as follows:

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2013

E. Results of Operations, continued

Administration costs, consulting and professional fees increased as a result of an amended office services agreement, which came into effect on July 1, 2012.

Consulting fees also increased due to a new contract for the Company's President, which came into effect during April 2012.

As per the Company's mandate to acquire, explore, and develop mineral resource properties, the Company has continued to invest in its current projects based on financial resources that have been available. During the current period, the Company continued to focus on its Ontario-based property.

Investor relations and travel and promotion fluctuate based on the number of conferences and trade shows attended and other work performed in preparation of financing activities.

Regulatory fees decreased due to additional costs recognized in 2012 relating to a listing application.

Non-cash share-based payments were recognized as a result of options granted and vested during 2013.

A flow-through share premium recognized relating to the private placement of flow-through shares completed during 2012, was extinguished on renunciation of the related tax benefits in February 2013.

F. Summary of Quarterly Results

The following financial data was derived from the Company's financial statements for the last eight quarters:

	Jun 30	Mar 31	Dec 31	Sep 30	Jun 30	Mar 31	Dec 31	Sept 30
	2013	2013	2012	2012	2012	2012	2011	2011
	$	$	$	$	$	$	$	$
Net loss	291,561	413,231	467,022	204,297	107,034	119,361	206,967	407,686
Basic and diluted loss per share	$0.01	$0.02	$0.04	$0.02	$0.01	$0.01	$0.02	$0.04

The Company earned no revenue during the periods presented other than minimal interest income as the Company is in the exploration stage.

Quarterly fluctuations mainly related to share-based payments which vary as stock options are granted, expenditures on mineral property exploration which vary as projects are identified, impairment of mineral properties which vary as projects are assessed and deferred income tax adjustments relating to flow-through share renunciations.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2013

G. Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

As at June 30, 2013, the Company had a working capital deficiency of $458,602 (December 31, 2012 - working capital surplus of $264,645). The Company has been negotiating extended payment terms of its trade payables and reviewing its capital expenditure plan and future commitments to identify opportunities to reduce or delay spending and payments. However, the Company does not generate any revenue from operations and, without further financing, the Company does not have sufficient capital to meet the requirements for its administrative overhead, maintaining its mineral interests and continuing with its exploration program in the following twelve months.

For the foreseeable future, the Company will need to rely on raising capital in the equity markets to provide working capital and to finance mineral property acquisition and exploration activities.

Although the Company has been successful in the past in obtaining financing through the issuance of its securities, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future in light of factors such as the market demand for its securities, the general state of financial markets and other relevant factors. Failure to obtain such additional financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development of its projects with a possible loss of some properties and reduction or termination of operations.

There have been no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the six months ended June 30, 2013. Bank indebtedness is due on demand, bears interest at prime plus 1% per annum, and is secured by a letter of credit from Schroders (C.I.) supported by a guarantee by a company owned by a shareholder of the Company. On April 18, 2013, the Company entered into a guarantee extension agreement whereby the guarantee was extended until June 16, 2013. As consideration for the extension the Company issued 100,000 common shares to the guarantor on July 2, 2013. The Company is currently negotiating a further extension of the guarantee. The Company is in compliance with all externally imposed capital requirements.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2013

J. Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments include cash, reclamation bonds, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and amounts due to related parties.

These financial instruments have no material risk exposure. Risk is managed with respect to cash by risk management policies that require cash deposits or short-term investments be invested with Canadian chartered banks rated BBB or better, or commercial paper issuers R1/A2/P2 or higher. In addition, any investments must be less than one year in duration.

K. Events After the Reporting Period and Outlook

Except as otherwise disclosed, there have been no material events after the reporting period. The Company is confident that its existing group of properties has potential warranting continued exploration. Activities over the ensuing year will focus on these assets. The Company expects to continue its strategy of collaborating with experienced mining companies to develop its properties and to advance them to production.

L. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements and does not contemplate having them in the foreseeable future.

M. Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Board of Directors, through its Audit Committee, is responsible for ensuring that management fulfils its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal control. The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors, who meet at least quarterly with management and, at least annually with the external auditors to review accounting, internal control, financial reporting, and audit matters.

There have been no significant changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The audit committee has established procedures for complaints received regarding accounting, internal controls or auditing matters, and for a confidential, anonymous submission procedure for employees who have concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Whistleblower policy is in accordance with National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees, National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines and National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices.

Being a venture issuer, the Company is exempted from the certification on Disclosure Controls and Procedures and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. The Company is required to file Form 52-109FV1 for annual reporting and Form 52-109FV2 for interim reporting.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2013

N. Risks and Uncertainties

The principal business of the Company is the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties. Given the nature of the mining business, the limited extent of the Company's assets and the present stage of development, the following risk factors, among others, should be considered.

Exploration Stage Company

The Company does not hold any known mineral reserves of any kind and does not generate any revenues from production. The Company's success will depend largely upon its ability to locate commercially productive mineral reserves. Mineral exploration is highly speculative in nature, involves many risks and frequently is non productive. There is no assurance that exploration efforts will be successful. Success in establishing reserves is a result of a number of factors, including the quality of management, the level of geological and technical expertise, and the quality of property available for exploration.

Once mineralization is discovered, it may take several years in the initial phases of drilling until production is possible, during which time the economic feasibility of production may change. Substantial expenditures are required to establish proven and probable reserves through drilling and bulk sampling, to determine the optimal metallurgical process to extract the metals from the ore and, in the case of new properties, to construct mining and processing facilities. Because of these uncertainties, no assurance can be given that our exploration programs will result in the establishment or expansion of resources or reserves.

Operating History and Availability of Financial Resources

The Company has no operating revenues and is unlikely to generate any significant amount in the foreseeable future. Hence, it may not have sufficient financial resources to undertake by itself all of its planned mineral property acquisition and exploration activities. Operations will continue to be financed primarily through the issuance of securities.

The Company will need to continue its reliance on the issuance of such securities for future financing, which may result in dilution to existing shareholders. Furthermore, the amount of additional funds required may not be available under favourable terms, if at all. Failure to obtain additional funding on a timely basis could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development and could cause the Company to forfeit its interests in some or all of its properties or to reduce or discontinue its operations.

Price Volatility and Lack of Active Market

In recent months, the securities markets in Canada and elsewhere have experienced a high level of price and volume volatility, and the market prices of securities of many public companies have experienced significant fluctuations in price which have not necessarily been related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. It may be anticipated that any quoted market for the Company's securities will be subject to such market trends and that the value of such securities may be affected accordingly. If an active market does not develop, the liquidity of the investment may be limited and the market price of such securities may decline below the subscription price.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2013

N. Risks and Uncertainties, continued

Competition

The resource industry is intensively competitive in all of its phases, and the Company competes with many other companies possessing much greater financial and technical resources. Competition is particularly intense with respect to the acquisition of desirable undeveloped properties. The principal competitive factors in the acquisition of prospective properties include the staff and data necessary to identify and investigate such properties, and the financial resources necessary to acquire and develop the projects. Competition could adversely affect the Company's ability to acquire suitable prospects for exploration.

Title to Property

Although the Company has exercised the usual due diligence with respect to title to properties in which it has a material interest, there is no guarantee that title to the properties will not be challenged or impugned. The Company's mineral property interest may be subject to prior unregistered agreements or transfers, aboriginal land claims, government expropriation and title may be affected by undetected defects. In addition, certain of the mining claims in which the Company has an interest are not recorded in the name of the Company and cannot be recorded until certain steps are taken by other parties.

Government Regulations and Environmental Risks and Hazards

The Company's conduct is subject to various federal, provincial, state laws, rules and regulations, including environmental legislation.

Environmental legislation is becoming increasingly stringent and costs and expenses of regulatory compliance are increasing. The impact of new and future environmental legislation on the Company's operations may cause additional expenses and restrictions. If the restrictions adversely affect the scope of exploration and development on the resource property interests, the potential for production on the property may be diminished or negated. The Company has adopted environmental practices designed to ensure that it continues to comply with environmental regulations currently applicable to it. All of the Company's activities are in compliance in all material respects with applicable environmental legislation.

Environmental hazards may exist on the Company's properties, which may have been caused by previous or existing owners or operators of the properties. The Company is not aware of any existing environmental hazards related to any of its current or former property interests that may result in material liability to the Company.

Dependence on Key Personnel

The Company is dependent on a relatively small number of key directors, officers and senior personnel. Loss of any one of those persons could have an adverse affect on the Company. The Company does not currently maintain "key-man" insurance in respect of any of its management.

Licenses and Permits

The operations of the Company require licenses and permits from various government authorities. The Company believes that it holds all necessary licenses and permits under applicable laws and regulations for work in progress and believes it is presently complying in all material respects with the terms of such licenses and permits. However, such licenses and permits are subject to change in various circumstances. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain or maintain all necessary licenses and permits that may be required to explore and develop its properties, commence construction or operation of mining facilities or to maintain continued operations that economically justify the cost.

O. Proposed Transactions

Other than normal course review of monthly submittals, there are no other new acquisitions or proposed transactions contemplated as at the date of this report.

P. Forward-Looking Statements

Some of the statements contained in this MD&A may be deemed "forward-looking statements." These include estimates and statements that describe the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, and expectations of a stated condition or occurrence. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "believes", "anticipates", "expects", "estimates", "may", "could", "would", "will", or "plan". Since forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and address future events and conditions, by their very nature they involve inherent risks and uncertainties.

Actual results relating to, among other things, results of exploration, reclamation, capital costs, and the Company's financial condition and prospects, could differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements for many reasons such as but not limited to; changes in general economic conditions and conditions in the financial markets; changes in demand and prices for the minerals the Company expects to produce; litigation, legislative, environmental and other judicial, regulatory, political and competitive developments; technological and operational difficulties encountered in connection with the Company's activities; and changing foreign exchange rates and other matters discussed in this MD&A.

Readers should not place undue reliance on the Company's forward-looking statements. Further information regarding these and other factors, which may cause results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, are included in the filings by the Company with securities regulatory authorities. The Company does not assume any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement that may be made from time to time by the Company or on its behalf, except in accordance with applicable securities laws, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
